

FORMATIVE YEARS IN ARBITRATION - WHAT NO
ONE TELLS YOU
EVENT INVITATION

29 August 2025

Breaking into arbitration is exciting—but the early years can be a maze of unspoken rules, invisible opportunities, and lessons you only learn the hard way. This candid, interactive session lifts the curtain on what it really takes to thrive in your formative years: from getting noticed (without being pushy), to managing unpredictable workloads, to building the kind of network that opens doors internationally. Expect real stories, practical tips, and honest insights you won't find in textbooks—shared by practitioners who've been in your shoes and made it through.

Come ready to take notes, ask questions, and leave with a game plan for making your formative years truly count.
