ORDER

Pursuant to the order passed by this Court, record is available from the concerned trial Court of sessions case No.537/2025, whereby on perusal of the application dated 7.1.2026 filed by present petitioner from the jail, whereby he has averred in the application itself that the present bail application, which is second bail application filed before the High Court is withdrawn.

In the morning, it is pointed out by the counsel for the opponent cum original complainant that such averment is there in the application, however, counsel for the applicant is not aware. Even then, it is submitted that there is no such averment in application. When, this Court perused the said bail application before the trial Court and found the specific averments, Court has enquired about that, counsel for the petitioner has submitted that there is communication gap between the petitioner and counsel for the petitioner and therefore, as petitioner himself has filed this application from the jail and therefore, counsel is not aware about the same.

This Court is of the opinion that in pleadings of the parties are base of the any proceedings and thereafter the submission made at the Bar is also required to be made by the counsel after verifying the facts.

Since counsel for the petitioner is not pressing this application.

This Court after showing displeasure about such misleading statement made at the Bar refrain to make further any observation in the matter.

The request to the counsel to cooperate the proceedings of the Court in fair and transparent manner without concealing any material facts or without making any misleading statements.

With above observation, present application is permitted to withdraw.

Accordingly, this application is dismissed as withdrawn.
