ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by the Hon'ble Chief Justice)

The matter is of serious concern and emergent attention of this Court has been brought to the notice through this petition, wherein it has been stated in affidavit that the 5th respondent/Publisher and persons associated with the 5th respondent are going to release a book, which contains a title with specific name of a sitting Judge of this Court in extremely derogatory language.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that a copy of the title page/front page of the book is being circulated in the media including social media, which has been placed on record and has prayed this Court to peruse the same.

3. Having perused the said document, which is said to be the title page/front page of the book proposed to be released/published on 08.01.2026 at the opening of Chennai Book Fair, at once, would show that the pictorial representation, the caricature and the expressions/words used are not only highly derogatory, but virtually abusive. The pictorial representation directly points out with face and name of a sitting Judge of this Court.

4. Learned Additional Solicitor General of India and learned Additional Government pleader appearing for the State would submit that if this to be the title of a book, it is apparently derogatory, abusive and highly contemptuous, as it tends to scandalise the Court and tends to erode the public confidence in the system.

WP No.608 of 2026

5. We find that the title of the book also shows that the same is proposed to be released on 08.01.2026 from Shop Nos.172 and 173 at the Chennai Book Fair. The allegation in the petition is against the 5th respondent, who is stated to be a publisher, who has been allotted Shop No.173.

6. On the face of it, the proposed release of the book as titled and shown in the petition is highly derogatory and abusive and crosses all limits and needs to be dealt with stern hands by the Court. Learned State counsel present in Court, who represents the police officials/Respondent Nos.2, 3 and 4, is directed to take immediate and effective action to ensure that no such book having such pictorial representation, statements, caricature or contents tending to scandalise the Court/Judge are allowed to be published and circulated.

6.1. Appropriate action shall be taken by the police authorities including to ensure that such scandalised publications do not take place, which may include seizure of pictorial representation and the contents of the nature as stated above, through any means including electronic media.

7. On the basis of the material which we find in the petition, we are inclined to initiate suo motu criminal contempt against 5th respondent.

8. Emergent notice be issued to 5th respondent including private notice to be served at Stall No.173, Chennai Book Fair. Notice be made returnable in three weeks.

9. On the next date of hearing, learned State counsel shall also submit a report with regard to the compliance of the direction given today.

List the matter on 28.01.2026.
