Proceeding	The Commission received a complaint on 10/02/2026 about inaction by the state government/ central govt. officials in Sambalpur, Odisha. Upon pursuing the same the Commission directed as follows: The complainant reports administrative failure leading to the systemic exclusion of tribal families in Sambalpur district, Odisha from welfare schemes due to denial of Aadhaar documentation. The petition states that affected families are being denied food, education, healthcare, and housing benefits, leading to severe deprivation. It reports administrative inaction despite the State's constitutional duty to protect Scheduled Tribes and ensure basic rights. He requests the Commission to kindly take cognizance of the matter. Let a copy of complaint be transmitted to the Chief Secretary, Govt. of Odisha, the District Magistrate, Sambalpur and the Chief Executive Officer, the Unique Identification Authority of India (UIDAI), Sambalpur, Odisha, through online mode to ensure the needful action and submit the action taken report duly translated in English to the Commission within four weeks.
